I AM the Most Holy Mother of God.

Today I have come especially to you, dear children of Light, who are trying to move forward in life despite all the difficulties encountered along your Path. I have come to those who humble yourselves when each following karmic situation bursts on you, and ask for forgiveness for your past wrong choices and understand the action of the Divine Law. And I am so glad when I see your progress, especially when I hear that despite everything that happens to you, you remember to thank the Lord and God for it.

At this moment, I have come to share with you the joy brought to me and all the other Beings of Light from the Higher Octaves of Light by your selflessness, as well as how happy we are because of the example that you set and for the opportunity this example to be followed by everyone else after it has been impressed in the collective energy field of the human society. When you pass successfully through the storms that hit you in your life one after another, you become even stronger and able to support so many other Living, Bright and Pure Souls!

I hear your prayers and feel the Divine Love that you send to me from your hearts. And I want to tell you that when you invite me, I participate with you in your daily Service, and I saturate your bodies with my Love. And I am ready to give my support to those who are aspired and invite me to give my support – to those who are willing to get free from their weaknesses and bad habits that prevent them from living in the Divine Light, Wisdom, Power and Love, Joy, Peace and Harmony, and thus to fulfil the Commandment of the Father to live happily.

I want to share how joyful we are on the Heavens for those of you who have heeded our words, and some of them gradually, others immediately decided and stopped watching television, listening to the radio and excessively and/or randomly reading on the internet and in your press and/or watching videos on the internet, and also stopped eating meat, using alcohol, tobacco and other harmful substances.

Then, your consciousness calms down, your vibrations increase, and after a while, you become able to perceive our vibrations, and we can pour into your subtle bodies what you need in every single moment as there is enough free space in them, and this can be done! And thus, your evolution continues successfully.

Also, when you invite an Ascended Being of Light, we have the opportunity to stay in your temple. Then, you become our eyes, ears, arms and legs. Thus, you give us an opportunity to penetrate your denser world and work on the realisation of the Lord's Providence.

That cooperation is blessed by the Father, and all the Heavens rejoice when another one of you prepares his temple and learns how to come out of the sea of the illusion even more often and to fly into the Heaven's space under the gentle sun rays of the Divine Consciousness.

My beloved, I embrace you with my Love which will Divinely multiply your strength so that you are successful along the Path of spiritual development.
