

Application of the Divine Law of non-interference into the manifestation of other people's free will without their explicit demand and request for that

Lordess Pallas Athena

Updated by Lordess Pallas Athena on 01 November 2021

15 July 2011

I AM Pallas Athena.

I have come to all Living, Bright and Pure Souls who have turned to God, using the provided new Grace of the Heavens. Today, I want to introduce one of the pitfalls of the illusion to you so that you can avoid this more subtle trap that lies on the Path of many of you.

It is about doing 'good' to others that you meet in your life without their explicit request for you to interfere in their affairs. Beloved, doing such 'good' is an illusion! Whatever you do for other people with a good intention without their request for it is interference in their life path and in the Life Plan pre-defined, outlined and prepared from Above. And then you have to work off the negative karma that you have created yourself even though you have been guided by the best of your intentions and a desire to help your close one but prompted by representatives of one or more networks of the illusion.

And has it ever occurred to you that the situation in which your close person is could be the best for the salvation of his Soul at the moment? Because it is primarily during his suffering that a man turns to God. And the sufferings are working off of his own negative karma, and they descend in a strictly specified order and frequency at the exact time so that the effect is the strongest, and this is the highest manifestation of Divine Mercy and Compassion, and help for the salvation of his Soul.

Sometimes, it is even not about the suffering but the delusions of the people around you. And if you try to free them from their delusions, again guided by good feelings and with the desire to do good, you will create your own negative karma, and you will be interfering in God's work.

Part of the manifestation of the Higher Self through Consciousness is the complete lack of interference and observing what is happening as a bystander while being ready to give Support to others along their Path in case they request it unquestionably, without any ambiguity or understatement. And these other people could be your parents, spouses, children, friends, neighbours, colleagues..., whoever!

For example, you see that your child is going along a path that is different from the one in which you would like to see him go, and he makes mistakes that you would like to keep him away from to make it easier for him in the future. However, your outer human consciousness may miss the fact that the mistakes your child makes now could teach him something which will facilitate and accelerate his progress on the Path ahead in the future.

Another example – you meet someone and talk to him, and he says that he is going to a specific location, but you know that the way that he is going does not lead to the place where he wants to go. But did the man ask you whether he was going in the right direction? If you start to convince him that he is wrong, you will be the one who is wrong! Because, although moving in the wrong direction, his Higher Self is leading him on this 'wrong' path, and the man is calmly walking on it, as his inner sense is telling him that he is on the right track. And he really is. The reasons for this can be many and various, and all of them extremely important, for example, he may meet his future wife on this 'wrong' path, or someone else with whom he needs to work off a karmic debt, or he could see something that would give him the idea for a new and very successful business, and so on. Divine energy was used so that he was directed from Above to take this wrong way!

Now, imagine how your interference would affect the situation if, at the moment in which he says that he is going in a certain direction, and you know that he is going in a different one, you start to convince him that he is wrong and should go another way? And what you will have to work off in the future in your life?

If you ask Me how to deal properly with this situation, I will tell you right away – with the Wisdom gained from the new Teaching that you have received and that broadens your level of Consciousness – in the first convenient moment when you are alone or covered, to Bless this person with all your heart to succeed in realising the Divine Providence on his Path! And then you should say, 'And may all be according to Your Holy Will, Lord!'

In that way, you will continue forward successfully along your Path without any unnecessary acquiring of new karmic burden to work off.

Now, in your daily life, a new scope for action opens up to apply the Divine Law of non-interference into other people's free will unless they explicitly requested it and asked for it. Or in other words: you can interfere in the manifestation of other people's free will only when they have specifically demanded your help and/or support and asked you to do it!

I AM Pallas Athena.

© Rositsa Avela

download

UNIFICATION
www.edinenie-vsemirno.net